NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Progress of Senate Battle Over Ratification of the Naval Treaty.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

OPPONENTS of the London naval treaty, seemingly aware that there are enough of its supporters in the senate to bring about its ratification, spent last week mainly in dealing and offering reservations to the pact. Senator Norris, as well as many others, was, still deeply concerned about the secret documents which the President refused to give the senate, and Senator Borah visited the White House to tell Mr. Hoover it might be necessary to accept the Norris rider which says ratification is to be with the understanding that there are no secret agreements.

President Hoover was highly indignant over the implications in this Norris reservation. Since he had given the senate his word that no secret agreement existed, he felt that the rider was a reflection on his good faith. Borah said that if the reservation were rejected he could not answer for the fate of the pact. He did not think it likely that the treaty would be rejected, but he regarded it entirely possible that the supporters of the Norris reservation, if defeated, would be able to prevent its ratification definitely, if not to bring about a postponement of final action until autumn.

When Senator Kenneth McKellar of Tennessee came forward with a reservation under the terms of which Great Britain would be required to dismantle her naval bases off American shores.

McKellar offered yet another reservation providing for freedom of the seas, because, as had been admitted by Senator Reed of Pennsylvania, the delegates to the London conference failed to obey the instructions of congress to consider this question before or at the parley. Both these reservations were opposed by the administration senators.

Senator Watson of Indiana, majority leader, in the effort to speed up action on the treaty proposed a unanimous consent agreement that beginning Tuesday, July 22, debate be limited to ten minutes on each amendment and reservation and on the treaty itself, and that each senator be allowed to speak but once on each. He declared that if this plan were rejected debate would be revoked, and a petition for this was prepared.

The fact that this petition was signed by not only the 16 names required for its submission, but nearly the two-thirds majority required for its adoption made it certain that the treaty would be ratified with votes to spare.

MERELY for recreation and not much needed rest, President Hoover will start August 15 on a vacation trip that will last only about two weeks. This was announced at the White House, and it was added that the President would make no speeches or public appearances in the various cities he passes through. It is his intention to visit both the Glacier and Yellowstone National parks, but the itinerary has not yet been made out. It was considered likely he would travel by train to Chicago, take a boat from there to Duluth and make the rest of the trip by railway.

Representatives of the Interior department, at the direction of Secretary Wilbur, have selected a number of camping sites in the national parks for the use of the Presidential party.

Notwithstanding the President's evident intention to avoid political contests during his trip, the Republicans of Montana hope that his visit to that state will help the cause of Justice Albert J. Galen, who has been nominated for United States senator to oppose Senator Thomas J. Walsh. Galen is a moderate wet and Walsh has been an active dry. Both are Catholics.

Though, as was said, Mr. Hoover is declining invitations to make speeches, he has tentatively given assurance that he will be present and speak at the dedication of the Roosevelt arch, where the Roosevelt highway crosses the continental divide in Montana. The date of the dedication, which originally was to have taken place the past week, is to be fixed to suit the President's convenience.

SENATOR ARTHUR CAPPER of Kansas wants the farm board to buy 100,000,000 bushels of wheat, in addition to that already purchased, and he put his plan before President Hoover. The Chief Executive, however, had just had a talk with Secretary of Agriculture Hyde who had returned from a trip to the wheat belt and who was understood to be opposed to such a scheme as Capper proposed. So the President declined to approve the plan, though he told the Kansan he was anxious to do anything desirable to relieve the plight of the wheat growers.

Chairman Legge of the farm board made public his correspondence with Governor Reed of Kansas who criticized the board's plan for reduction of wheat acreage and criticized its activities, or inactivities. In his letter Mr. Legge makes it plain that the grain stabilization activities of the board have undergone no appreciable change in policy in spite of the governor's charges of its having broken the market and caused a record-breaking slump in wheat.

SENATOR Nye of North Dakota, chairman of the special senate committee to investigate campaign expenditures, was in Chicago last week holding hearings all by himself on the expenditures in behalf of Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, Republican nominee for senator. Nye and Mrs. McCormick haggled a lot concerning the factions and organizations that supported her against Senator Deneen, and various witnesses testified to their contributions to her campaign fund. But it was not apparent that anything was brought out discreditable to Mrs. McCormick.

That lady while on the stand demanded that the committee summon her Democratic rival for the senatorship, James Hamilton Lewis, and ask him to explain a statement he made in Springfield to the effect that it cost $1,000,000 to win the Republican nomination. She said Lewis "must have knowledge of expenditures of well over $700,000 more than I have included in my accounting. He should be subpoenaed if he has any knowledge of that sort."

FRANK J. DORGER, majority stockholder in the closed Cosmopolitan Bank and Trust company of Cincinnati, filed a petition in bankruptcy. Immediately thereafter O. C. Gray, state banking superintendent, stated that a shortage of $2,000,217 existed in the bank. The institution closed several weeks ago as the alleged result of the $1,000,000 check kiting operations of A. W. Shafer. Examiners also found Dorger's bank accepted $623,000 in fake securities from Shafer.

Common Pleas Judge Stanley Struble said he would consider a contempt of court charge against Dorger and his daughter, Martha, who also filed bankruptcy proceedings, because the state had been granted a temporary injunction restraining the Dorgers from disposing of their personal assets.

ACTIVITIES of Communists in the United States are being investigated by a congressional committee which was busy last week in New York city. Most important of the witnesses heard was Charles G. Wood, commissioner of conciliation of the Department of Labor. He said the Communists at work among the labor groups were chronic trouble makers, and described strikes in Passaic, New Bedford and Gastonia, N. C., each of which was either started or influenced by the Reds. He declared the strikes, like other activities of the Communists, were but a means of attacking the government of the United States.

FRANCE and Italy last week reached a "gentlemen's agreement" to take a naval building holiday for six months, and there was great relief in European diplomatic circles. The agreement means little from a naval standpoint, for neither nation intended to lay down any more vessels this year, but it was of immense importance psychologically. The statesmen of both countries now have six months of their problems before the six months are up.

GREAT BRITAIN, still struggling to settle the row in India, has a new trouble on her hands. This is in Egypt, where the Wafd or nationalist party, supporting Nahas Pasha, former premier against King Fuad, is stirring up revolt. The first outbreak was in Alexandria, where a fanatical mob of Wafdists staged a great riot, attacking Europeans and looting shops. Before native troops and police had regained control of the situation 13 civilians, all Egyptians, had been killed, and at least 60 were wounded by gunshot. About 100 others, including 50 police, were injured in other ways. The British battleships Queen Elizabeth and Ramillies were hurried to Alexandria.

Latest developments in the Indian affair indicated that Mahatma Ghandi, head of the passive resistance revolt, would be released from prison and invited to participate in the London round table conference that is to open October 20. As a preliminary, Ghandi is expected to call off the civil disobedience campaign.

It is also reported in London that though Prime Minister MacDonald and his colleagues are eager to show the Simon report they may be forced to face it at the round table because of the determination of certain Indian delegations to have the report accepted as a basis of discussion.

MAKING use of dictatorial power conferred on him by President von Hindenburg under the German constitution, Chancellor Bruening put into effect the "emergency finance law" by decree. The reichstag had refused to approve the measure and the government lost patience. The law, which is expected to end the government's deficit, includes an increase in income tax, enforcement of a tax on bachelors and spinsters, a head tax and a special tax on food and liquor served in inns and restaurants.

The reichstag has the right to repeal the law, but the chancellor threatens to dissolve the parliament if a repeal is sought.

GERMANY'S reply to the memorandum of French Foreign Minister Briand proposing a European federation indicates a general acceptance of the plan, though it has almost as many reservations as the Italian reply. The Germans, like the Italians and some others, insist that Russia and Turkey be included in the union, and they make it clear the federation should in no way be directed against the United States. They subtly suggest a revision of the war treaties, but say little of disarmament. The German reply agrees heartily with Briand on the necessity of subordinating economic to political aspects—a view which may prove to be the fatal weakness of the whole scheme.

A "purely tentative" reply from Great Britain was not so encouraging, expressing the opinion that the proposed union is "unnecessary and possibly a dangerous institution." It suggested that the plan be placed on the agenda of the next assembly of the League of Nations.

Greece, Austria and Poland also have accepted the Briand plan, and Russia seems to be fishing for an invitation.

AS USUAL, you can make your own choice as to which faction in China is winning the civil war. Just now things look none too cheerful for the Nationalist government. Dispatches from Peiping say fifteen leaders of the Kuomintang signed a manifesto formally ending the long dispute between the right and left wings of that party, and calling a national conference within a month for the purpose of establishing a government "to succeed the false government which Gen. Chiang Kai-shek usurped." It is predicted Gen. Yen Hsi-shan will be head of that new government.

DEATHS of the week included those of Brig. Gen. H. C. Smither, U. S. A.; Rear Admiral A. H. Robertson, U. S. N.; Henry Sydnor Harrison, novelist; Judge Jesse Holdom, dean of the Chicago bench; James M. Lynch, veteran leader of the International Typographical union, and Leopold von Auer, eminent violinist.

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN VIRGINIA

Hanie Winckler was granted an appeal by the Virginia Supreme Court last week from the judgement of the Mecklenburg County Court, which gave him $100 fine and 90 days in jail on a charge of wounding a cow which belonged to C. H. and W. B. Gordon. Hanie claimed that the cow tried to gore him, and that he had to hit her with an axe to defend himself. He says also that he informed the owner at once of what had happened and sought a veterinarian.

The Virginia Prohibition party will put a candidate in the field against Senator Carter Glass in November, it was announced by Dr. R. L. Alter of Burkeville, chairman of the party for the State. The Republicans have announced their intention of doing likewise.

Now that a jury in Roanoke Hustings Court has held that the operation of from Thumb golf courses on Sunday does not violate the Virginia blue laws, another jury in that court will be called on to decide whether theaters may be operated on Sabbath. Theatre operators contend that the laws which govern golf courses governs theaters, and that one is just as legal as the other. Tom Thumb courses are miniature courses operated on vacant lots in cities.

Purchase of John Kerr Branch, Virginia capitalist, who died July 1 at his Italian villa, was the arrival at Richmond, upon the arrival of the body from abroad. Mr. Branch's estate is estimated at from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000.

Marriage of Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist church, South, to Miss Helen Hawley McCallum, 40-year old widow, of New York City, was revealed last week. The nuptials were celebrated in London on May 31, with the Bishop and his bride sailed for Brazil, where he announced that they would remain until December. Bishop Cannon's first wife died in December, 1928, and was Miss Lura Virginia Bennett.

VETERAN VISITS APPOMATTOX

J. A. Porter, of Winchester, Tenn., who was here at the surrender 65 years ago is here visiting friends and scenes in Appomattox where he with others took part in the surrender. Mr. Porter was in the entire war with the exception of one day and only a few of his company, all of whom were from this county, now survive. His company was company 44 Virginia infantry, and of those who survive now are Major Evans, Robert Caldwell, Sr., Grand Jones, and Milton Isbell. The company was in the famous Pickett's livision.

Mr. Porter is a brother of the late B. Duvall Porter, author and editor, and he is the only surviving member of his family. Since the war he has been an engineer on a railroad in Tennessee for 45 years, but is now retired. His captain in the army was Capt. W. E. Robertson, and later Capt. Sam L. Overton all of this county. He is visiting at the home of his cousin, W. F. Abbott and Mrs. W. A. Owen near this place.

Mr. Porter is 89 years old, but still active and erect. He will return to his home in Tennessee in a few weeks. Cor. Lynchburg News.

Comfort from Coolidge. Britannia, in the Air. Two Italians Celebrate. Dredger-Jaw Elephants.

Calvin Coolidge suggests that those in need of "a little encouragement can look at the condition of the Federal Treasury."

It seems like advising the hungry to look through the glass window of a restaurant. But figures quoted by Mr. Coolidge are encouraging. "The national debt has been reduced by ten billion dollars and now stands at a little over sixteen billion dollars. The interest charge has been practically cut in two, but is still over $600,000,000."

Mr. Coolidge also reminds you that "we have had five reductions of taxes which gives the people direct relief of about $2,000,000,000, two thousand millions yearly."

Credit for the draft of tax bills, issuing new securities that cut the average interest rate below 4 per cent, is due to Secretary Mellon, says Mr. Coolidge.

Credit for the policy of economy "belongs to the President," but Mr. Coolidge doesn't say which President.

A little credit also, although Mr. Coolidge doesn't mention it, belongs to the American citizens, who have been taxed to pay of the ten billion in bonds, and are taxed now to meet every foolishness that Congress can invent.

Britain's airship, R-100, greatest that ever rose into the air, has crossed the Atlantic to Montreal with thirty-seven crew and seven passengers. The R-100, faster than the Graf Zeppelin, represents Britain's determination to rule the ocean of air as for centuries she has ruled the ocean of water, regardless of expense.

Germany and England make the effort. We look on and do little. It is all the more surprising as we have the money, the industrial skill, and in the White House a great engineer, who must be sorely tempted to put this country ahead in a field that is purely one of engineering skill.

Two celebrations in Italy recently. It was Mussolini's forty-seventh birthday, and the thirtieth anniversary of King Victor Emmanuel's coronation.

Italians congratulated Mussolini and their king enthusiastically. They adore Mussolini, their national hero, looking upon him as the savior of Italy from "the fate of Russia."

They love their king, a modest, sagacious and sincere man.

Fourteen years ago Mussolini took control of Italy and her government, and thus, in all probability, prolonged King Emmanuel's reign by inspiring them.

What would have happened had Mussolini adhered to his early Socialistic and Communistic beliefs, the ideas that put him in jail?

Could he have put his black shirts on Communism instead of putting them on the Fascisti, repeating in Italy the experiment in Russia?

Turkish territory was invaded by savage Athenians, coming out of Persia. Kemal Pasha threw his troops into the fight against them, and killed thousands of them.

To Persia's demand that Assagas "for invasion" Kemal replies, "Come and get the damages."

What interests students of history is the fact that Kemal announces his intention to "end nomadic tribal life in Turkey." It seems strange to think of Asiatic tribesmen who were still ready to fight to the death for the right to wander up and down in the earth, with no settled habitation.

Roy Chapman Andrews believes that he has found in an ancient Mongolian mud pit the most remarkable fossils ever discovered. Some convulsion happened 2,000,000 years ago, and twenty-five monstrous, prehistoric elephants with "dredger jaws five feet long" met death suddenly where Andrews found their skeletons.

Science says the monsters with dredger jaws came gradually, as a result of evolution, using their jaws like the working end of a steam shovel, to scoop up massive grasses by the roots.

But it is not necessary for fundamentalists to believe that. You can readily understand that elephants with dredger jaws might have been extremely useful in the garden of Eden, to dig ditches, canals, excavate artificial lakes or any other work that Adam might have planned.

And think how they would have interested little Cain and Abel. Even grown men in our day will stand for hours watching a steam shovel.

Among other things, including lowest wheat and cotton prices and a general uncertainty, our nation is "enjoying" the worst drought in its record.

Washington officials say the dry spell is unparalleled, in records reaching back fifty years.

Farmers and truck gardeners have planted, ploughed up and replanted crops.

Perhaps the drought will mean higher prices for some farm and garden products. Unfortunately, as usual, the higher prices will be due to the fact that the farmer hasn't the goods to sell.

Appomattox picnics at Richmond.

One of the most enjoyable events of the summer, in which residents of Appomattox were interested was staged in Forest Hill Park, South Richmond, the 3rd inst. The occasion, being a picnic in connection with a family re-union, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Agee, by their children and grandchildren. A bountiful dinner was served in picnic style in the park pavilion, composed of the best that the markets afford, which was greatly enjoyed by all present, in a party of fifty or more. After dinner many betook themselves to Byrd Park Lake to be regaled by its crystal waters. Others visited "Maymont on the James" now a city park, donated by the late Maj. Jas. H. Dooley to the city of Richmond for a public park. "Maymont is one of the show places of Virginia.

Those composing the picnic party were: W. L. Agee and daughters, and Miss Parsons, Washington, D. C., Dewey Agee, Silver Springs, Maryland, T. H. and Elmore Agee and family, Richmond, C. D. Doss and family, Petersburg, T. M. Rosen and family, Buckingham, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Agee, Appomattox, Clarence Agee and family, Appomattox, J. W. Coleman and family, Miss Naomi Hancock and Geo. Langran, of Appomattox, were as guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Agee. Memory of the event will linger with us.

RUPTURE

Don't submit to avoidable operations or the use of antiquated trusses, as these all set where the lump is and not where the opening is. The opening is seldom larger than a dime, no matter the size of the rupture), and all cases can be retained with the end of a lead pencil.

"The Spermatic Shield-Complex in combination with the Retainer-Simplex (Patent No. 747247 and other patents pending)— a scientific achievement in a highly specialized art. It did not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in 10 days on the average case. Indistinctly superior to any instrument method or operation and producing results in no other way obtainable. All cases are secure a lifetime as against further trouble or expense. Larger or difficult cases or incisional rupture (following operations) especially solicited. This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain, producing results without surgery, injections, medical treatments or prescriptions, with distinguished personal patrons of all nations."

"If you want done what the rest cannot do —see Seeley."

P. H. SEELEY, of Chicago and Philadelphia, nationally famous expert, will himself personally be at the Virginian Hotel, and will remain in Lynchburg Friday, August 15, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. He will be glad to demonstrate without charge or fit them if desired.

The Board of Managers of the Southside Community Hospital, announce a campaign to begin Sunday August 10th and last to Saturday August 16th, for the purpose of raising $7,500, so that charity work can be continued and the charity service enlarged.

As the campaign opens $1,8060 has been received from persons interested in the work of the Hospital. These contributions have come purely voluntarily within the past few weeks, which gives the campaign a working basis as it begins.

Over five thousand pieces of mail were sent to people in the nine counties of Amelia, Appomattox, Buckingham, Charlotte, Cumberland, Nottoway, Lunenburg, Prince Edward and Powhatan, which compose the hospital district. The bulletins which have been mailed give graphic pictures of the work being done at the hospital, and make a very businesslike appeal for contributions to carry on the charity work, which is being done.

An operating deficit of $9,000 per year, guaranteed by appropriations from the Board of Supervisors of several of the counties, the Council of the Town of Farmville, and through voluntary contributions from the Farmville Lions Club, has enabled the hospital to care for 308 charity cases since its opening. To further increase the charity work an additional fund of $7,500 is sought.

Since the opening there have been 13 patients from Appomattox County, and the number of patients using the hospital each year is increasing. Charity patients from Appomattox County have been treated at the hospital and returned to this County an asset instead of a county and community liability.

Emergencies exist every day and the Southside Community Hospital is playing an important part in the personal and public health of this community.

Dr. W. A. Brumfield, director of the Southside Health District, whose work is preventive medicine against typhoid fever, diptheria, smallpox, is rendering valuable service to all those in this section. His work is connected with that of the Southside Community Hospital, though it is a distinct department within itself.

The Southside Community Hospital was built by the aid of the Commonwealth of New York City, a fund created by Mr. Harkness, a philanthropist, for the purpose of establishing hospitals in rural sections, where they were most needed. The Southside Community Hospital was the first unit established in the United States. The Commonwealth Fund contributed $2.00 for each $1.00 that was raised in the district for the building of the hospital, but the citizens of the district are charged with the duty of maintaining the institution. These citizens have been true to their trust, and in order to enlarge the charity work in each of the nine counties, the Board of Managers are asking contributions to a fund of $7,500.

The Board of Managers from Appomattox County are: J. A. Burke, Supt. of schools, and L. N. Ligon, Pamplin business man.
